

The Centre Culturel Britannique Invites You to Enjoy...

The best of British Literature at LA MAVA theatre

The CCB presents an evening of readings for all ages from three of Britain's most popular writers

Part of the 1st chapter of Vol 1 Harry Potter by J.K.Rowling
... Harry Potter books have attracted adult and younger readers worldwide and are now considered a cornerstone of modern young adult literature

•
The Owl and the Pussycat A nonsense poem by Edward Lear
... A classic of English literature 'The Owl and the Pussycat' tells the story of the love between an Owl and a Pussycat who marry in the land 'where the Bong-tree grows'

•
A scene from The Importance of Being Earnest Farcical comedy by Oscar Wilde
... 'The Importance of Being Ernest's' high farce and witty dialogue secured Oscar Wilde's literary reputation and helped make this his most enduringly popular play

•
Printed copies of the readings are available for you to follow, and the readings followed by Discussion, Tea and Biscuits (of course)
plus the opportunity to buy a selection of English DVD's and Books from the CCB Library

E.T. Days at LA MAVA THEATER
35 rue du long pot, Fives
Thursday 15th March from 20h30 to 21h30